

O God, Do Not Keep Silent

Words by Allison Ash

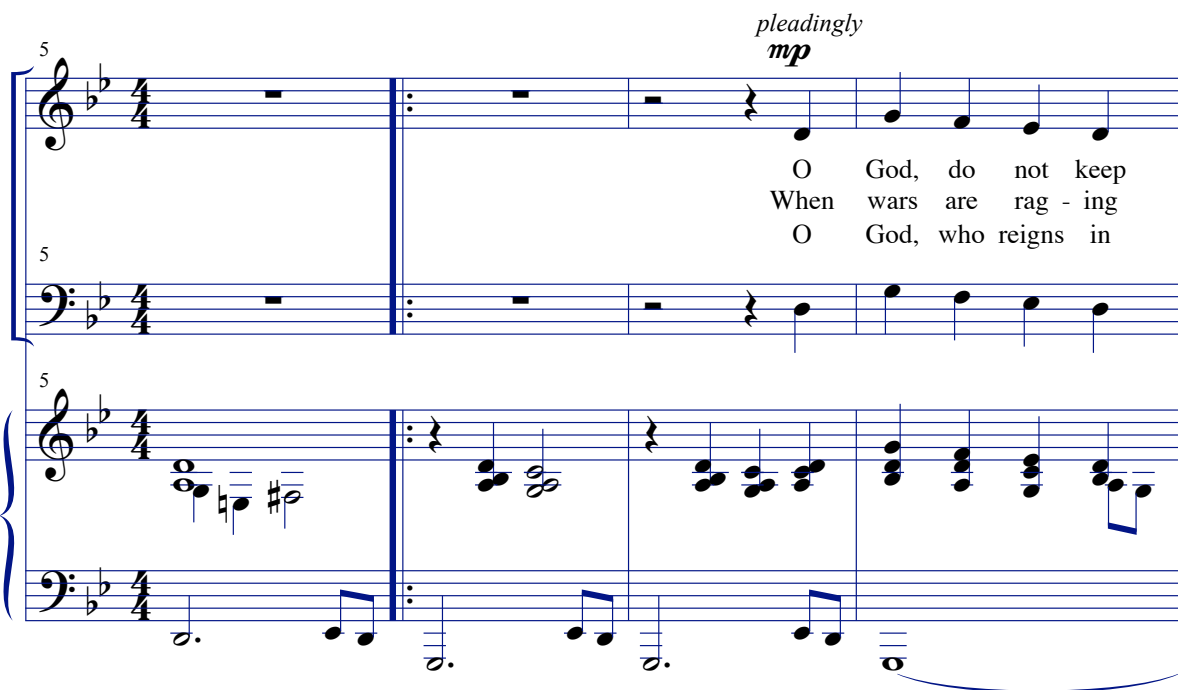

Hans Leo Hassler
Arr. by Edwin M. Willmington

with somber expression

mp

pleadingly
mp

O God, do not keep
 When wars are rag - ing O God, who reigns in si - lent, nor hide Your face — for long. For 'round us, and suf - fring's ev - 'ry - where. We heav - en, who heals our wounds — and scars. Whose tears have been my wor - ship and cries have been my cry, "Have You a - ban - doned the world to its own shout com - mands cre - a - tion, Whose whis - per calms our song. Yet I will trust in You, Lord, to care?" Lord, who but You can res - cue our hearts; Now turn Your ear and an - swer the 15

12

12

15

18

an - swer now my plea. Be faith - ful to Your des - p'rate world of pain? Re - turn, O God, a - prayers Your chil - dren raise. Then doubts will turn to 18

3.

21 rit. a tempo

ser - vant, re - turn, O God, to me.
wak - en our faith in You a - gain.
danc - ing, and cries will turn to praise.

21

21 rit. a tempo